

Interdisciplinary Programs Task Force

Task Force recommendations were informed by information from the following inputs.

Presenters

- Current state of interdisciplinary programs - Provost Mary E. Morton
- Health & Wellness Strategic Initiative – Working Group Chairs, Heather Dale, Kari Eckheart, Karl Larson

Strategic Plans

- Advising Center
- Linnaeus Arboretum
- Curriculum II
- Environmental Studies
- First-Term Seminar
- Gender Studies
- Gustavus Technology Services
- Hillstrom Museum
- International and Culture Education
- Japanese Studies
- Johnson Center for Environmental Innovation
- Kendall Center for Engaged Learning
- Latin American Studies
- Neuroscience
- Nobel Conference
- Peace Studies
- Registrar

Working Group Reports

- Health and Wellness
- Leadership Development
- Sustainability and Environmental Stewardship

Documents

- College Learning for the New Global Century - Association of American Colleges and Universities
- The Innovation Imperative in Manufacturing
- Africa Studies Proposal
- Student input from the Gustavus Greens and Peer Assistance

