GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS COLLEGE

A Report to the Gustavus Community

Gustavus Adolphus College is located in St. Peter, Minnesota, a community of approximately 10,000 residents. The College enrolls approximately 2,500 students, some 2,100 of whom live on campus in College-owned residence halls and houses. The remainder are annually given approval to live off campus in the St. Peter community. Some 670 non-student employees work on campus as members of the faculty, staff and administration.

In accordance with The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, Gustavus Adolphus College provides the information and statistics herein to College students and employees, and to others upon request.

Questions or concerns about any of the policies or procedures outlined herein may be directed to the Director of Safety and Security (507) 933-8809 or to the Dean of Students (507) 933-7526.

Department of Safety and Security

The Department of Safety and Security, housed in the basement of "A" section Room 35A of Norelius Hall (phone number 507-933-8888), is on duty 24 hours a day throughout the year. As the College's primary unit for supporting the personal safety of all students, employees and visitors, its mission is to provide the safest environment possible in which education may be pursued. Uniformed officers are responsible for

- Supporting residence hall, academic building and grounds security
- Enforcement of parking, traffic and other College regulations
- Responding to personal safety concerns
- Addressing environmental health issues
- Crime prevention efforts
- Incident investigations
- Management of campus escort services.

While Safety and Security officers are not commissioned police officers under Minnesota statutes the College has an excellent working relationship with local law enforcement and safety officials. Hiring practices for Safety and Security personnel include background checks coordinated through the St. Peter Police Department. Training in first aid, CPR, interview techniques, report writing, victim concerns and security procedures is provided to all officers.

In addition to maintaining its own radio frequency, Safety and Security has direct radio communication with the St. Peter Police Department and ambulance squad. Safety and Security also monitors the Minnesota statewide Emergency Law Enforcement and weather radio frequencies.

Safety and Security patrol officers work closely with city police and other officials who are called to campus to assist with emergencies, to investigate crimes and to apprehend those involved in criminal activity. It is the policy of Gustavus Adolphus College to report all Part I crimes and Part II crimes (as defined by the FBI Uniform

The Gustavus Adolphus College Safety and Security Department along with the St. Peter Police Department works to provide the safest environment possible in which education may be pursued.

Crime Reporting systems), and known violators of state or federal laws to appropriate law enforcement authorities. Violations of College policies are handled according to the Student Conduct Code and Campus Judicial Procedures or by appropriate College authorities.

Safety and Security: A shared responsibility

The cooperation and involvement of students and employees in their own safety and security is essential. Members of the campus community must assume responsibility for their personal safety and the security of their belongings by taking simple, common sense precautions. Rooms and offices should be locked when unoccupied. Security measures—such as alarms, door locks, or key access systems—should never be overridden or circumvented. Bicycles should be secured with effective locks. Students and employees must park in designated areas, and should keep their valuables secured in the trunk. Suspicious-looking individuals or unusual incidents on campus should be reported immediately to Safety and Security, members of the College staff, or to the St. Peter Police Department.

Community Reporting: College Response

Students, faculty, staff and guests of the College are encouraged to immediately report any suspicious or criminal activity, safety concerns and emergencies to appropriate authorities. If you are a victim of a crime or a witness to one, you should do the following:

1. Call campus Security or the St. Peter Police Department as soon as possible.
2. Obtain a description of the offender(s), including sex, age, race, hair, clothing and distinguishable features. Also attempt to obtain a description and license number of any vehicles involved. Note the direction taken by the offender(s) or vehicle(s) and report these to campus Security or city police.
3. Preserve the crime scene. Do not touch any items involved in the incident. Close off the area of the incident and do not allow anyone in the crime scene until authorities arrive.

Crime Definitions

The definitions listed are taken from the Federal Bureau of Investigation Uniform Crime Report (UCR) Handbook and used to classify the criminal offenses listed under Crime Statistics.

Aggravated Assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the Crime Statistics

Crime statistics are published annually and cover the three previous calendar years. Additional information regarding these statistics is available from the Department of Safety and Security, 800 West College Avenue, St. Peter, MN 56082.

These statistics follow the uniform crime reporting procedures of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

They should be considered in relation to the occurrences of crime in society generally, College demographics and statistics from other institutions of similar description.

Crime statistics for the most recent three-year period are compiled from information obtained from the Department of Safety and Security, Saint Peter Police Department, Dean of Students Office, Counseling Center, Health Center, Campus Judicial and Student Organization Advisers. The Department of Safety and Security is responsible for the sorting, tabulation and dissemination of Campus Security Act Incidents information.

Crime Incidents are broken down into four geographic locations for reporting purposes:

On Campus

- Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution of higher education within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and

- Property within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as food or other retail vendor).

Residence Halls or Other Student Residences

- A subset of "on campus" crimes, which includes only those crimes that were reported to have occurred in dormitories or other residential facilities for students on campus.

Security in Residence Halls

Student housing at Gustavus is provided in eleven residence halls, two apartment buildings, and a number of houses on or adjacent to campus. All halls are co-educational by floor or section and, with two exceptions, contain a distribution of the classes. Each living unit has established visitation periods for hosting other students and/or guests.

Students must receive permission from the Office of Residential Life to live off campus. Generally, only juniors and seniors are considered for off-campus approval. The College does not provide supervision for off-campus housing.

In general, returning upper-class students select their own rooms and roommates. New students (first-year, transfer, and international exchanges) are assigned housing by the Office of Residential Life, based upon stated needs and/or interests. Students may request room assignment changes, which are generally accommodated on a space available basis.

According to College policy, all guests in residence halls are to have a student host and are subject to all College regulations. Except for those sponsored by the College, overnight guests may not stay more than two consecutive nights. If a roommate objects to the presence of an overnight guest, that guest may not spend the night. Access to College residence halls by non-residents is on an "as needed" basis and incorporates a number of key control procedures.

To control entry to residential facilities, exterior doors are locked 24 hours a day. Student night hosts, trained and supervised by Safety & Security, go on duty in the specific halls nightly at 8 p.m. Students are issued and are expected to carry both a room key and an outside door key that allows access to their assigned hall and to no other. Keys are randomly numbered in the interest of added security. Safety and Security staff routinely check exterior doors during their tours of campus.

Standard locking mechanisms are used to secure doors and windows in student rooms. Residents are urged to use these safety features to protect themselves and their possessions. As the College's property insurance does not cover the personal effects of students residing in its living spaces, students and parents should check into coverage available through parents' insurance programs and take steps to ensure coverage in the event of a loss.

Live-in residence hall staff includes Head Residents, who are members of the College's professional staff, and Collegiate Fellows, students who serve as resident assistants, peer counselors, and academic advising resources. The Residential Life staff receives basic security training in emergency procedures and crime prevention, and designated members of the staff are on call during evening/night hours.

Floor/section and/or hall meetings are held at the beginning of each school year and throughout each semester to inform residents about personal safety, housing security, and policy enforcement procedures. In addition, specific programs are held throughout the year in response to particular situations or as part of an ongoing educational effort.

College organizations and offices—including the Peer Assistants and the Dean of Students Office—also provide information on safety: brochures, posters, alerts, and summary incident reports. Students who receive permission to remain on campus during low occupancy periods such as holidays and vacations are specifically identified to campus Safety and Security personnel and are generally consolidated into the Southwest Hall hostel space.

Access to Campus Facilities

Campus facilities are open to students, employees, and guests during normal business hours. Because of the College's size and location, a formal policy for identification and admission of visitors has not been necessary; however, students and staff are requested to notify staff members or local police of any suspicious persons or circumstances. Individuals not having legitimate business on campus may be arrested for criminal trespass. Trespass warning notices are posted near entrance and exit doors on campus buildings.

Facilities and Grounds Review

College personnel monitor the campus for irregularities and needed repairs of maintenance in facilities, grounds, and lighting. Safety and Security personnel are major factors in all landscape and lighting designs. College officials seek input from the campus community as well as from outside agencies in evaluating these needs.

Campus Escort Service

An on-campus walking escort service is provided for members of the College community from dusk to dawn by the Safety and Security Department. Handicap escorts are available 24 hours per day. Escorts may be requested by phoning extension 8888.

Support for On-Campus College Sponsored Events

Any College or Student Activities-approved event on campus may seek appropriate assistance from the Safety and Security Department.

Assistance and support may range from simple communication and acknowledgment of the event to providing safety and/or security personnel and equipment on-site and dedicated to that event.

Initial contact regarding this assistance may be made by contacting the Safety and Security Department (ext. 8809); or in person at #35A Norelius Hall (basement of "A" Wing) at any time.

To support individual event needs, Safety and Security may have a "need to know" the following depending upon the type, size, etc., of the event a group wishes to sponsor on campus.

Informing the Gustavus Community

The following media are used, as needed, to keep the campus informed about safety and security issues, to report to the campus community crimes considered to be a threat to students and employees, and to encourage students and employees to be responsible in following stated security procedures and practices: The Gustavian Weekly (student newspaper), The Yellow Sheet (weekly faculty/staff newsletter), "Community-L" (e-mail distribution list that includes all College students and employees), campus forums, hall or floor meetings conducted by Residential Life and Student Affairs staff and consultants, crime prevention literature, Student Senate meetings, posted announcements, and mailings. Individuals wishing to file a timely report can contact the Safety and Security Office or Dean of Student's Office. The Safety and Security department maintains a daily log of all reported crimes for public view. Viewing of the Daily Log is made available Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Crime Prevention Efforts

Gustavus Adolphus College's crime prevention programs seek to ensure that students, faculty and staff are aware that crime does occur on campus. At the beginning of the academic year, first-year students are provided a program on campus safety and security, where a lecture, film, and question and answer period present an overview of crime prevention on campus. CFs (Collegiate Fellows), Area Coordinators, Head Residents and PAs (Peer Assistants) receive basic security training in emergency procedures and crime prevention.

A number of College publications, books, films, videos, pamphlets, and services are available to provide additional information in support of the personal safety of students, faculty and staff. For a list of all such materials available or information about these publications, or about other programming options, contact the Dean of Students Office (ext. 7526) or the Department of Safety and Security (ext. 8809).

Community Oriented Patrol (COPs)

Community Oriented Patrol (COPs) program assigns each campus residential area its own Safety & Security Officer to serve as a familiar resource for information and a point-of-contact in the event you ever need assistance. This is the second year in which the COPS Program has coordinated crime prevention and community patrolling activities in the residential halls.

Each assigned officer works closely with resident students, as well as CFs and Area Coordinators of the Office of Residential Life. COPS officers assist community members in defining problems, developing solutions, and implementing strategies to solve problems and prevent crimes. In addition to this, COPS officers conduct investigations and facilitate a variety of educational programs including - self-defense, bike safety and security, operation identification, drug and alcohol awareness, personal safety and property security.

Confidential Reporting

Members of the Gustavus Adolphus College community may confidentially report incidents in which they are victims or witnesses to campus security authorities. The identity of individuals making confidential reports will not become part of security records. While campus security authorities and counselors routinely encourage the reporting of crimes and other incidents, they will also make confidential reporting procedures known, as appropriate. Crimes reported confidentially will become part of the annual crime statistics report. In most cases, it will not be possible to investigate confidential reports. The purpose of a confidential report is to accede to wishes of confidentiality while also taking steps to ensure community safety.

Security Lockers

Personal property lockers have been placed at the entrance to the Book Mark. These coin-return lockers are for temporary security of personal belongings. Lockers will be monitored nightly and unclaimed property will be removed and stored for a limited time by the Safety and Security Department. Owners may retrieve their unclaimed property by providing proof of ownership and payment of an administrative fee. Questions regarding this program may be directed to the Safety and Security Department.

Safety and Security Phones

To support personal safety, the College has installed external "Safety and Security" telephones at various outdoor locations. External phones have also been installed at all academic buildings and residential halls. They provide callers with the ability to directly dial Campus Safety and Security (for escorts, emergencies or information) and the St. Peter Police Department.

All Safety and Security phones with blue lights have the option of calling the Safety and Security Department or the St. Peter Police Department.

Lost and Found

There is a campus Lost and Found program managed through the Safety and Security Department. Students, faculty and staff should call Safety and Security at extension 8809 to report any lost or missing items leaving a description along with their name and phone number. Anyone finding clothing, keys, books, jewelry, wallets, electronics, sports equipment or other items on campus should bring these found items to the Safety and Security Department.

The Safety and Security Department understands the impact of losing personal belongings and seeks to return lost and found items to the owners as quickly as possible.

The Drug-free Schools Act

Introduction

Gustavus is concerned for the well-being of all members of the academic community and for the quality of their relationships. One aspect of this concern involves the use of alcohol and other mood-altering drugs.

Gustavus Adolphus College has adopted and implemented a program, consistent with federal guidelines, to prevent the illicit use of drugs and abuse of alcohol by students and employees.

Standards of Conduct

Gustavus prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of drugs and alcohol by students and employees on its property or as part of its officially sponsored activities.

The College expects all persons to comply with state laws regarding the possession, sale, and use of controlled substances (e.g. illegal drugs) and to cooperate fully with all law enforcement agencies in the investigation of the possession, sale or use of illegal drugs.

Standards relating to this prohibition are further defined in the College's Alcohol/Drug policy, which is printed annually in the Gustavus Guide, the Staff Handbook and the Faculty Handbook.

Institutional Sanctions

Gustavus Adolphus College will sanction students and employees found responsible for violations of its alcohol and drug policies. Those sanctions include, but are not limited to, mandatory counseling and/or treatment, reassignment (of employment or housing space), and suspension and expulsion or termination of employment. Additionally, the responsible parties may be referred to civil authorities for violations of College regulations that are also violations of civil or criminal law.

State and Local Ordinances

Controlled Substances

Alcohol

Short-term effects of excessive drinking may include: increased heart rate and skin temperature; loss of muscle control and hangover symptoms such as fatigue, nausea and headaches.

Alcohol abuse can also result in brain cell damage, mental illness and personality disorder, increased tension, loss of sexual function and blood disorders, as well as causing birth defects.

Long-term heavy drinking can lead to heart damage, increased risk of heart disease and heart failure. It can also increase the risk of ulcers and cancers of the liver, mouth, throat and stomach; cause degeneration of bone and muscle, brain damage, alcohol hepatitis and result in blackouts and memory loss.

Alcoholics starting their recovery may experience “DTs”—disorientation, shaking, memory impairment and hallucinations resulting from withdrawal.

Cocaine (“Crack”)

Cocaine, a stimulant most commonly inhaled as a powder, causes psychological and behavioral changes including overstimulation, hallucinations, irritability, sexual dysfunction, psychotic behavior, social isolation and memory problems. Users progress quickly from infrequent use to dependence. “Crack,” a refined cocaine derivative, is highly addictive and particularly dangerous, sometimes proving fatal even to the occasional user.

Marijuana

Marijuana has a psychoactive ingredient, tetrahydrocannabinol (THC), which causes increased heart rate, hallucinations, paranoia or panic, impaired memory and an altered sense of time. Use of marijuana can cause heart, lung, brain and nerve cell damage, and result in lung cancer, memory disorders, interference with psychological maturation, temporary fertility loss and psychological dependence.

Amphetamines

Amphetamines, psychomotor stimulants such as “speed,” “love drug,” and “ecstasy,” produce patterns of use and effects similar to those of cocaine: confusion, incoherent speech, anxiety, psychotic behavior, ringing in the ears, hallucinations and irreversible brain damage. Intense fatigue and depression can lead to suicide. Large doses may result in convulsions and death from cardiac arrest.

Hallucinogenics or Psychedelics

Drugs including LSD, mescaline, peyote, and phencyclidine (PCP or “angel dust”) impair and distort one’s perception of surroundings, cause bizarre mood changes and result in visual hallucinations. Discontinued use may cause “flashbacks”—distortions of virtually any sensation. Withdrawal may require psychiatric treatment for the accompanying persistent psychotic states. Suicide is not uncommon.

Solvent Inhalants

Fumes from solvent inhalants, glue, lacquers and plastic cement cause problems similar to those resulting from alcohol. Incidents of hallucinations and permanent brain damage are more frequent.

Personal Safety Tips

Gustavus Adolphus College strives to create and preserve a comfortable and safe campus environment. As full partners in this effort, students and employees are urged to take measures such as the following to enhance personal safety and security.

- Mark your books and other valuable possessions with your name; avoid leaving them unattended.
- Don’t attach identification to your keys in the event that they are misplaced or lost.
- Immediately report the loss of room or building keys to Safety and Security.
- When you leave your automobile, make sure that the doors and windows are locked and that valuables are out of sight.
- Always lock your bicycle securely.
- When walking or jogging, don’t wear headphones, which could prevent you from hearing approaching persons or automobiles.
- Don’t jog in secluded areas after dark.
- Let friends or colleagues know if you will be away from your room/office, when you expect to return, and how you can be reached if needed.
- Don’t hitchhike or pick up strangers.
- Use the campus escort system, as needed.
- Remain alert to your surroundings.

Sex Offender Registry

The “Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act” is a federal law enacted on October 28, 2000 that provides for the tracking of convicted, registered sex offenders enrolled as students at institutions of higher education, or working or volunteering on campus. The law requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement agency information, provided by a State concerning registered sex offenders, may be obtained.

It also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice, as required under State law, of each institution of higher education in that State at which the person is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student.

Information regarding Level 3 sex offenders living in the State of Minnesota is maintained by the Minnesota Department of Public Safety, the Department of Corrections and the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension. Of the three levels defined by the State of Minnesota, Level 3 offenders may be obtained at the following web address www.dps.state.mn.us/bca.

Sex Offense Policies and Procedures

Sexual Assault

Gustavus Adolphus College considers any form of sexual assault to be a very serious offense, which will not be tolerated in its community. The College will assist any student, faculty member, or staff member who is a victim of sexual assault and will discipline any person who violates its policy against sexual assault.

I. What Is Sexual Assault?

Sexual assault is any physical contact of a sexual nature that occurs by force or coercion or that is directed at a person who is physically helpless or mentally impaired or incapacitated. Mental incapacitation includes intoxication. Sexual assault is not limited to sexual intercourse.

The College also has a “Policy against Harassment,” which includes sexual harassment. All members of the Gustavus community should read and be familiar with the College’s “Policy against Harassment,” as well as the policy against sexual assault.

If you are not sure whether you have been sexually harassed or sexually assaulted, or both, speak with a member of the College’s Sexual Assault Response Team (SART), or one of the College’s Sexual Harassment Advisors identified annually through the

Dean of Students. SART members can be contacted 24 hours a day by calling Campus Safety & Security (933-8888) and asking to speak with a SART member. The Gustavus SART members include:

Patty Dawson, Health Services (SART, Team Leader): 933-7165

Stacey Gerken, Counseling Center: 933-6067

Rachel Larson, Chaplains Office: 933-7450

Jason Stratman, Occupational Health and Environmental Safety: 933-7494

Gustavus Adolphus College Sexual Response Team (SART)

The Gustavus Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) should be the first referral in any sexual assault case that involves Gustavus students. Gustavus SART members are professional staff members who trained and prepared to respond to incidents of sexual assault, past or present. SART members provide assessment, referral and follow-up to victims of sexual assault.

Timely medical attention is important for evidence recovery and SART members are available to provide assistance to victims during this process as well as resources for follow-up care. SART members will keep the circumstances of the assault as confidential as possible.

II. What to Do if You Believe You Have Been Sexually Assaulted

Getting Immediate Help – Addressing immediate physical and emotional trauma is of paramount importance. Get to a safe place and call for help. Call 9-1-1, a friend, or Campus Safety and Security (x8888). Safety and Security can help you get medical aid and provide additional support including contacting one of the SART members. Any of the above can help you get medical aid and provide other necessary support. One reason for timely medical attention is the retrieval of evidence if the assault has just occurred. Take care not to destroy evidence inadvertently by showering, douching, changing clothes or disturbing the scene of the assault.

Reporting the Assault

A victim of sexual assault may file a complaint with the College by reporting the assault to the Dean of Students/Vice President for Student Affairs Office, the Dean of the Faculty/Provost Office, or another senior College officer. Pursuant to the College's Sexual Harassment Policy, the complaint may also be reported to and investigated by a Sexual Harassment Grievance Officer, if appropriate. A victim may also file a criminal charge with local law enforcement. The College, through its designated personnel, will help you in reporting an assault to law enforcement and/or filing a criminal charge if you choose to do so. Designated staff members will also accompany victims to meetings with law enforcement if they wish, and explain how to use the College's internal complaint processes.

III. Your Rights as a Sexual Assault Victim

As stated above, you have the right to file criminal charges with local law enforcement authorities and, upon request, are entitled to assistance from the College in notifying local law enforcement authorities.

You have the right to obtain assistance from the Crime Victims Services, Bremer Tower, Suite 2300, 445 Minnesota Street, St. Paul, MN 55101, Phone: 651-201-7300 or 888-622-8799.

You have the right to file a complaint with the College and have your sexual assault complaint investigated by the College and the right to participate in any disciplinary proceedings regarding the sexual assault complaint. If you wish, you may have a support person (or an attorney, if you are represented by one) present with you at such proceedings.

The College will notify you as to the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding regarding your complaint subject to the limitations of state and federal laws relating to data privacy practices.

The College will also promptly assist you, at the direction of law enforcement authorities, in obtaining, securing and maintaining evidence in connection with the sexual assault incident. The College will also assist you in preserving any materials relevant to a campus disciplinary proceeding.

The College will, in cooperation with law enforcement authorities, shield you from unwanted contact with the alleged assailant, including the transfer of the victim to alternative classes or alternative College-owned housing, if these options are available and feasible.

IV. Confidentiality

The College will respect the confidentiality of the sexual assault victim and the alleged offender(s) as much as possible, consistent with the College's legal obligations.

V. Ongoing Support

Because of the traumatic nature of sexual assault, victims are strongly encouraged to seek professional help. Members of the Gustavus Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) are available to assist you in getting help and referrals for follow-up care. The Counseling Center located on campus in the Johnson Student Union provides free and confidential services to students.

If you would like to receive more information about your options for pressing charges, for reporting an incident, for filing internal complaints, or for counseling, please contact the College staff members listed below:

Henry Toutain, Vice President for Student Affairs/Dean of Students, (507) 933-7526/ 934-6942

Stephen Bennett, Assistant Dean of Students, (507) 933-7739/ 934-6796

Deirdre Rosenfeld, Associate Dean of Students, (507) 933-7526/ 469-2709

Charlie Strey, Assistant Dean of Students/ Director of Residential Life, (507) 933-7531/ 931-0862

There are also support resources outside the College community. The College Counseling Center maintains a list of local therapists, including clinical psychologists, social workers and psychiatrists in private practice. Students should check with their current health plans to determine insurance coverage for outside providers.

Theft (Larceny)

Theft is defined as the unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. It is the most commonly reported crime at Gustavus Adolphus College. Thefts can easily be prevented by following the steps below:

- Do not leave your valuables unattended (book bags, books, laptop computers, calculators, etc.).
- If you must leave valuables momentarily, ask a friend to watch them for you.
- Take advantage of the free temporary storage lockers located at the entrance of the Book Mark and Dining Service coat closet.
- Always lock your bicycle with a good bicycle lock device. We recommend that you use a "U"-locking device that can be bought at cost from the campus Book Mark.
- Lock your bicycle securely to an immovable object. Take advantage of the numerous bicycle racks on campus. If you see where there is a need for an additional bicycle rack, please contact Safety and Security.
- Put your name and driver's license number on all items of value.
- If you are a victim of a theft, report it immediately to campus security.

Fire Safety

Preparing for emergencies well in advance is one of the most effective ways of dealing with potential disasters. In the case of a fire, knowing the steps to take can minimize problems.

Steps to follow if you see a fire:

1. Activate the nearest fire alarm.
2. "A-B-C" type fire extinguishers available in buildings can be used on most types of fires, but never endanger your life or the lives of others by using them. Even if the fire has been put out with fire extinguishers, the Fire Department still must be called to determine that the fire has been completely extinguished.
3. If you are on or off campus, alert Safety and Security at ext. 8888 or call 9-911. Give your name, address, location and extent of the fire.
4. Calmly alert people in the building and evacuate the building by following the EXIT signs. DO NOT USE THE ELEVATORS.
5. Once the alarm has been activated and immediate attention has been given by emergency personnel to the safety of others, close corridors, windows, doors and stairwells to prevent the spread of fire and smoke.
6. Remain outside the building at a safe distance.
7. Meet Safety and Security or fire personnel upon arrival to direct them to the fire. Inform Safety and Security and fire personnel of any special chemicals, biological or radiological hazards involved.

Steps to follow if you are caught in a fire:

1. Remain calm.
2. Before opening a door, feel it with the back of your hand. If it is hot:
 - Do not open the door.
 - Open the windows. If possible, lower the top half of the window to let out heat and smoke and raise the lower half to let in fresh air.
 - Seal the cracks around the door with towels, linen or clothes. Soak these items in water, if possible.
 - To attract attention, hand objects out of the window and shout for help.

- Keep low to the floor. Take short breaths to avoid inhaling smoke. Place a wet towel over your nose and mouth. Keep your head six to eight inches off the floor. If the door is not hot, brace yourself against the door and open it slowly. If hot air or fire rushes in, close the door. If you can leave, close all doors behind you and proceed to the nearest safe exit. Leave the building and stand clear of the fire. Help direct Safety and Security and fire personnel when they arrive.

Tornado Preparedness

Before a Tornado

- Select a shelter; the best protection is afforded by an underground shelter or basement.
- Be familiar with the weather service alert and siren system; there is a "test" the first Wednesday of every month at 1 p.m. For further information, contact the County Emergency Management Office.

During a Tornado

- Proceed to the designated shelters, if possible.
- Seek safety in an underground basement or in an interior part of the lowest level (closets, bathrooms, hallways). Get under something sturdy.
- If in a multi-level building, go to an interior hallway on the lowest floor possible. Remain away from outside walls. Assume a crouched position with arms over your head.
- Stay away from windows, particularly on the windward side, and avoid shelter in large rooms with large, unsupported roof spans.
- If outside in an automobile, do not try to outrun a tornado. Drive at right angles away from the tornado's path. If there isn't time or if you are on foot, take cover and lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch, culvert, excavation or ravine.

After a Tornado

- Wear sturdy shoes to protect your feet from possible broken glass.
- Check for injuries. Apply first aid. Do not attempt to move anyone seriously injured.
- Check for fire.
- Check utilities for damage and evacuate the building if a gas leak is present. Do not light matches or turn on electricity until you are certain there are no gas leaks.
- Avoid downed power lines.
- Check for structural damage; clear blocked exits.
- Check radio and phones and monitor official broadcasts. Do not use the phone except for emergencies.
- Use extreme caution when close to masonry structures.
- Do not call the security, police or fire department except in the case of an emergency (fire, severe injury or a gas leak). A delay in response time may be expected.
- Telephone a designated out-of-state person who can call other family members and friends to advise of your location and condition.

Lightning Detection

Automated Lightning Detection System: When the sensors detect conditions for a lightning strike, the automated system will sound 15-second blast from its horns and a yellow strobe will activate and stay on until danger has passed or at least 10 minutes after the last detection of lightening. Once the system has detected an all-clear, you will hear three short blasts and the yellow strobe will go off.

The lightning detection will be operational daily from 6:00 am to 9:00 p.m.. Once activated, you should immediately go inside a nearby building. Do not seek shelter under trees or other tall objects which can attract lightening. Motor vehicles can provide shelter, however, once inside the vehicle, do not touch any metal that can be part of the motor vehicle frame.

Firearms - Weapons Policy

The personal possession of firearms in all campus buildings and on all campus property is strictly prohibited. This prohibition applies to all students, employees, independent contractors, and visitors, including those who have a valid permit to carry a concealed weapon. Individuals who possess a valid permit to carry a firearm may however, keep it locked in the trunk or glove compartment their vehicle in a campus parking lot. This prohibition does not apply to authorized security or law enforcement personnel. Individuals wishing to store firearms and ammunition at Gustavus can do so by bringing them to the Office of Safety and Security, Room 35A, Norelius Hall basement.

Except under circumstances noted above, students and employees are prohibited from using, storing or possessing weapons, fireworks or explosives on property owned or controlled by the College and/or in the course of any College program or employment. Weapons may include, but are not limited to: firearms, pellet guns, air rifles or BB guns, paintball guns, bows and arrows, sling shots, water balloon launchers, martial arts equipment, swords, switchblade and large knives, tasers and clubs.

If you are aware that an individual possesses a firearm, or other weapon or explosives in violation of this policy, please contact Safety and Security (933-8888) immediately.
